RESERVATION PROCESS:

1. Reservations are on a first come basis.
2. Call to make a verbal commitment for city, date, and estimated number of participants.
3. Your reservation is confirmed upon receipt of a $1,000 NON-REFUNDABLE GROUP DEPOSIT and this completed application.
4. You may adjust your number as long as room is available. You must guarantee your number 30 days prior to your trip.
5. BALANCE DUE IN FULL 30 DAYS PRIOR TO TRIP. On these dates you will be charged for the numbers you have given us. You may increase your number providing space is available.

NO REFUNDS WILL BE ISSUED FOR CANCELLATIONS.

Refunds WILL NOT be given for cancellations, late arrivals, early departures, and/or meals not eaten. We are required to make advance financial commitments to insure the lowest rates possible. Once you make a commitment, we hold these spaces for you. Therefore, canceling an assignment means that all money paid will be forfeited and will be considered as a donation to missions. However, you may transfer to another city and date providing space is available. Lost group deposits can be used for up to two calendar years.

INSURANCE: Youth on Mission DOES NOT CARRY accident insurance and is not responsible for accident or illness.

ASSIGNMENT:

The mission assignment will be negotiated with you from our office. Once we agree on your assignment, you will be given your contact person's name, address, phone and a general description of your project. It is your responsibility to begin working with your contact person to work out the details. Our staff will help if you run into problems or need to change your assignment.

PREPARATION:

Youth on Mission expects a high standard of excellence. You are expected to train your group and keep a high commitment to the project. Failure to properly prepare will result in a less than successful project. Our staff will be glad to discuss any problems that you may encounter. Contact our office immediately for assistance.

GROUP BEHAVIOR:

Youth and adults are representatives of Jesus Christ, your local church, and Youth On Mission. It is very important to conduct yourself in a Christian manner at all times. Bad attitudes, fighting, disrespect, or damages to housing cannot be tolerated. If these problems should arise your group will be asked to leave. No refunds will be given for early departure.

AGREEMENT:

We have read the above information and agree with these terms and conditions. We will prepare our group and take actions accordingly.
